

Hang Week's Wash in a Few Minutes on a Hill Clothes Dryer

Clean Compact

Capacious Convenient

Why continue to fuss with unsightly, ungainly clothes lines and poles when you can get this neat, compact, convenient Hill Dryer.

Instead of being spread all over the yard and supported by numerous poles, every inch of every line on the Hill Dryer is within easy reach—so you can hang the whole wash without moving a step, without having to drag the heavy basket up and down the yard through snow or damp grass.

Set up a Hill Dryer in a convenient spot near the house and see how many steps, how much time, work and bother it saves. Once used it and no one could ever coax you back to the old-fashioned clothesline method.

Hill Dryers are made in several sizes and styles for lawn, balcony and roof. Hold 100 to 150 feet of line—revolve so line comes to you—taken apart, folded up and put away, keeping your lawn entirely clear of obstructions.

Let us put one up in your yard ready for next wash-day. Or call and see it.

CASE 3 YEARS IN COURT NONSUITED

After three years of litigation over a suit involving $76,000 the omission of two names as defendants on the case will non-suit the case of Scott vs. Kona Development Co. and compel the filing of a new suit on the part of the plaintiffs, unless the Supreme Court overrule Circuit Judge Mathewman's ruling that there can be no decision without the rejoinder of the two names, J. B. Castle and F. B. McStocker.

The suit was filed in April 1909 by M. F. Scott and Nettie L. Scott. The Kona Development Company was named as defendant and the amount involved was named as $76,000. The trouble arose through complications resulting when Scott sold out his claim in the company and Scott claimed his losses involved the amount named.

Proceedings were just getting under way when the Kona Development Co. filed an injunction stopping the suit. The plaintiffs took an appeal to the Supreme Court and had the injunction killed after a delay of eight months. The suit was renewed, but various delays arose which dragged it out until last November when the case was closed and submitted to the court for decision.

Finally after considering the case through the winter, Judge Mathewman made his ruling on July 6 that no decision could be rendered without the rejoinder of the names "J. B. Castle" and "F. B. McStocker" to the defendants.

News of the ruling was received here by Attorney Milverton for the plaintiffs last Wednesday when the boat arrived from Kona. Attorney Milverton will take an appeal to the Supreme Court in an effort to prevent the case from being non-suited through a technicality.

"It simply involved another delay," said Attorney Milverton, while discussing the case. "If the Supreme Court overrules Judge Mathewman, the case will simply go back again for a decision."

"But if the Supreme Court should approve the ruling of the lower court, a new suit will have to be brought after the two names have been added to the defendants."

CAUSES MUCH DISEASE

Advice About Stomach Troubles and How to Relieve Them.

Do not neglect indigestion which may lead to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent physician once said that ninety-five per cent of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be among the most dependable remedies known for the relief of indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is very prompt. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time tends to bring about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets help to insure healthy appetite, to aid digestion, and thus promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain them only at out stores—The Rexall Store, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd. Fort and Hotel Sts.

WILL BE IN "TIPS" TONIGHT

The Boston Juveniles will say farewell to a Honolulu audience at the opera house tonight. Their engagement has been most successful from every point of view and they intend to make the close of it fitting. There are several good parts in the play and as the standard of acting for the little folks was set in Olivette the audience will expect as much, and will probably get it. Jeff Munroe, who played Captain de Merrimac so well last week, has shown what she can do and she will be expected to do it tonight. There are several good and popular songs in "Tips", among them "The Houn' Dog," which Dode Canfield sings with such admirable effect, and "Take a Little Tip from Father," by Dixie White. These are leads and are sure of response from the audience. A number of theater parties have been arranged and the demand for seats has been large. The company will leave on the Marama tomorrow night for Victoria.
